

Daniel R. Stewart

SKILLS

- Experienced Art Educator
- Strong Leadership
- Effective Oral and Written Communicator
- Create Innovative Curriculums
- Computer Literacy

EXPERIENCE

2003-present College for Creative Studies Detroit, MI

Instructor/Tutor

- Instruct and tutor of color theory, 2D Design, and 3D Design courses to art students using inventive curriculum.

2007 Wayne State University Detroit, MI

Instructor

- Instruct foundation Design Concepts I to art students.

1993-2002 University of Toledo Toledo, OH

Instructor

- Instruct foundation courses to art students such as Drawing I, Drawing II, and 2-D Design using original class-based curriculum such as sketching at the area zoo and art museum.

1991-Present Monroe County Community College Monroe, MI

Instructor

- Instruct art fundamentals to education students and art appreciation to general studies students using creative class based curriculum such as visiting art fairs, art museums, galleries, artist studios, guest speakers, artist demonstrations, glass blowing factories, and hands-on experiences.
- Design and implement class curriculum for Art for Elementary Teachers, Art Appreciation, 18th and 19th Century Art History.

1990-92/2000-present Eastern Michigan University Ypsilanti, MI

Instructor

- Designed and implemented foundation class curriculum.
- Teach art fundamentals using unique class-based curriculum, such as local gallery tours, art fairs, and guest lecturers.

EDUCATION

1991

Eastern Michigan University

Ypsilanti, MI

- Master's of Fine Art, Painting
- National Dean's List

1986

The Ohio State University

Columbus, OH

- Bachelor's of Fine Art, Drawing, and Painting
- Minor, Cinema

Post Grad